

A photograph of two sheep standing in a grassy field. The sheep on the left is facing forward, and the sheep on the right is facing slightly to the right. Two speech bubbles are overlaid on the image: a black one on the left and a yellow one on the right.

Boy, that Beau Peep sure can square dance! Wonder how she learned how to do the left-side partner part so well?

I heard she went to the free Beau Peep session right before the October Bachelor Beaus dances.

The Bachelor Beaus invite all ladies in our CO dance community to play with the left side of dancing mainstream in a square. If you find yourself without a regular partner it's a great way to guarantee that you don't sit out of a tip. When you can dance the beau part it's easy to grab a friend and square up. And, even if you have a regular beau, learning the left side of things makes those "nontraditional" calls that callers throw into the dance mix an easy thing to do.

Roger Putzler will lead our Beau Peep session on Saturday, Oct 6, 6:15-7 pm. Scott Zinser will be our guide on Saturday, Oct 20, 6:15-7 pm. These pre-dance sessions are free with no obligation to attend the dance afterward. (But we know you'll have a great time with Roger and Scott if you hang around.)

If your beau needs to come early with you, that's OK. We have plans for him.

Want to join us? RSVPs are appreciated.
Barbry Hogue, barbry4747@msn.com.