

LEARN
MODERN SQUARE DANCING with the
ROSETOWN RAMBLERS
Portland's LGBTQ square dance club
Celebrating 35 years of dance, fun, friendship, and frolics

- Who: You! We welcome ALL dancers. No prior dance experience is necessary—we start from the beginning. If you do not have a dance partner, we will find one for you!
- What: Modern square dancing. Over the course of 15 weeks, you will learn 68 square dance calls, which will allow you to dance anywhere in the world. We dance to a variety of music styles.
- Where: Bridgeport UCC, 621 NE 76th Ave.
Portland, Oregon 97213
<http://www.bridgeportucc.org/>
- When: Wednesdays, 7-8:30 pm. We will host free introductions to square dancing on Aug. 29 and Sept. 12. If you want to continue, our lessons start Sept. 26 and continue every Wednesday from 7-8:30.
- Why: To meet new people, have fun, exercise your body and your brain, and be part of a wonderful community.
- How: Come to a free introduction or to the first lesson on Sept. 26. We do not have a dress code—wear whatever makes you comfortable.
- Cost: Our first two lessons—on Aug. 29 and Sept. 12—are free and with no obligation to continue. We'll discuss the cost of lessons and what's included in your tuition on those evenings.

For more information about the Rosetown Ramblers, please visit our website at <http://www.rosetownramblers.com/>. If you have questions, please send an email to info@rosetownramblers.com.